The Chicago-Detroit Contest
Played in Almost Freezing
Temperature Today.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 12.—The Detroit American league baseball team went upon the field at Bennett park this afternoon with three straight defeats registered against them by the Chicago National league team, following the twelve inning tie game with which the two teams opened the world championship series last Tuesday. The Chicago players were confident of ending the series by winning again today. Manager Hugh Jennings of Detroit, with his customary fighting spirit, was still hopeful of winning the championship. His team, he said, is not beaten until the season is over. In the last game of the series, three successive defeats for Detroit practically stopped the betting.

The batteries were Detroit—Mullin and Archer; Chicago—Brown and Kling. Howard played first for Chicago as Chance had his finger injured yesterday. The sky was overcast; the temperature 44 degrees, and a raw wind blew at fifteen miles an hour. The spectators wore heavy overcoats and blankets. The attendance was curtailed owing to the severe weather.

Chicago scored one run in the first inning. The final score follows:

Chicago ..... 2
Detroit ..... 0

THE HOLLINGSWORTH TWINS.

The popular, little Hollingsworth Twins will commence an engagement of six nights at the Elks theatre Monday, Oct. 14. They will give an entire line of new plays each night, opening Monday with "La Belle Marie."

Among the plays to be presented during the week's engagement are "Texas, Thelma, Mable, Rose Cottage, Under Southern Moss, A Hoosier Heroine, and La Belle Marie."

The twins company did the biggest business at the Elks' theatre, of any popular price attraction, on a previous visit here and the supporting company is as good now as before, while the twins are prettier and more lovable than ever.

La Belle Marie, the opening play, is a comedy drama of today. It tells the story of Jean Ingleside's revenge. Maud Hollingsworth in the dual role of Jean Ingleside, and La Belle Marie, has a part that is entirely suited to her artistic temperament, as it is full of emotion, pathos and dramatic lines and is a part that she takes great pride in portraying.

Myrtle Hollingsworth plays Stubbs the office boy; the comedy part in La Belle Marie. Stubbs stutters and in his endeavors to make himself understood, lies many a hearty laugh.

La Belle Marie or Jean Ingleside's revenge, a story of a woman's love and a man's cruelty, with the Hollingsworth Twins in the leading roles at the Elks' theatre, Monday night, Oct. 14. Popular prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents. Seats at Matsons.

MANY PROMINENT MEN VISITED CITY THIS WEEK

Big Fair Called Forth the Attendance of Well Known People.

For a number of years New Mexico's big annual fair has attracted a large number of prominent visitors, but this year's session has been noteworthy in the number of notable names which have been added to the list of attendants to the big carnival.

Governor George Curry, who arrived in the city Monday evening direct from Memphis, Tenn., where he conferred with the president during the previous week, established headquarters at the Alvarado and spent a busy week addressing conventions, eight seeing and conferring with party leaders, left the city this morning for Santa Fe, after expressing his appreciation of an enjoyable week and urging everybody to get in line for a grand boost for the statehood campaign, which is to be waged in the coming session of congress.

Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa, Brigadier General Thomas, commander of the department of Colorado; Colonel George K. Hunter, of the Fifth United States cavalry, of Fort Wingate; Senator C. Barera, of Trinidad, Colo.; Hon. H. O. Bursum, of Socorro; ex-Governors L. B. Prince and M. A. Otero, of Santa Fe; Judge John R. McElie, of Santa Fe; O. A. Larrazolo, of East Las Vegas, were also quartered at the Alvarado during the week.

The following is a partial list of prominent men of the territory, whose faces were seen on the streets during the week:

E. S. Gomey, sheep man and banker of Flagstaff, Ariz.; E. S. Aldrich, Gallup, T. B. Catron, Charles Safford, traveling auditor; H. M. Read, Jose D. Serna, clerk supreme court; Fritz Muller, receiver U. S. land office; R. H. Hanna, R. E. Twitchell, Chas. F. Easley, C. Gortner, of Santa Fe; J. G. McNary, banker, El Paso; W. E. Martin, clerk Third district court, Socorro; W. R. Brown, district freight and passenger agent, Santa Fe; El Paso; A. D. Garrett, Howell; H. A. Jastro, Bakersfield, Calif.; Jas. W. Mullens, Roswell; Frank G. Seale, base ball manager, Pueblo.

Among the representative business men of the territory who were in attendance, were the following:

John Becker, Belen; John Kennedy, Gallup; Thomas Marron, Silver City; M. J. Gibbs, Farmington; Edward Beasley, Orogrande; E. L. Hahn and J. J. Bailey, Cloudercroft; A. J. Fischer, Santa Fe; E. G. Murphy, Las Vegas; J. S. Moore, Roswell; P. Moreno, Las Cruces; E. W. Halpin, Silver City; Wm. Horabin, Thorpe; Postmaster Garcia, Springfield; S. Spitz, Santa Fe; J. M. Dennis, Rhonoe, Ariz.; Wm. McIntosh, Estancia.

The value of a good name as a trademark in winning the sale of goods and esteem of large numbers of people cannot be overestimated and has never been exemplified than in the case of the well known showmen, Norris & Rowe. Each season their really meritorious organization comes to us again and we commend the honest policy which gives more than is promised. The present tour is known as the Jubilee Souvenir Season as it marks the twentieth year of the partnership of Norris & Rowe. Comely souvenirs will be distributed to every one as Norris & Rowe wish to acknowledge the compliment of many past seasons' excellent patronage of the public that has always greeted their efforts so generously.

Time and again have other circuses with false names invaded the territory of Norris & Rowe but somehow the public was quick to choose the real from the false and the well known western showmen soon had the field to themselves again.

Norris & Rowe promise us a great big new circus this year and as their performances have been kept in the past there is no reason to doubt the truth of their announcements this season. From the glorious, gorgeous free street parade, the special side show features, the comedy of the clowns, the cleverness of the aerial gymnasts and acrobats, the skillful bare-back riding by lady and gentlemen equestrians, the trained wild animals to the exciting hippodrome races, will be found the most exhilarating wholesome entertainment for all.

Norris & Rowe exhibit in two rings and upon an elevated stage and under a spread of clouds of snowy canvas greater than ever before. They travel in a train of three sections of fifteen cars each, making 45 cars in all. Exhibition will be given at Albuquerque Friday, October 25th.

AMERICA AND CHINA FRIENDLY SAYS WU
Hong Kong, China, Oct. 12.—At a banquet given by Consul General Wilber in honor of Secretary Taft, Wm. Ting Fang said that China and America had always entertained the friendliest relations. His duty, after arriving in the United States, will be to continue those relations which are being strengthened day by day. Taft said that all improvement in China, whether government or administrative reforms, or development of the resources of the country, would have

They Sold Confetti. "Barked," and Did Other Kinds of Work.

While fair week has always been a busy one for the students of the University of New Mexico, the one of this year has been particularly so. Only three days of college work have been indulged in and those were but partially filled. Meanwhile the undergrads have been lending their aid in all directions to the fair management and assisting with the preparations for the institutional exhibits on the grounds and in the parade.

They "Colored" Money. Several of the young men have been engaged in the sale of confetti from which they are reported to have reaped a rich harvest. It is stated that two of the students have succeeded in clearing their expenses for the next three months through this means and a number have averaged a profit of $5 per night. This evening being devoted to King Carnival should be their banner night. Watch out for them and lend a hand. You may be helping a future president or member of congress.

All through the week the university exhibits have continued to attract the largest number of visitors of any single display in the exhibition building and at times the number of people in line before the wood lath from which the little gift cups were turned out has been quite large. The liquid air demonstration also has scored its triumph as a drawing card. The animated song sheet idea as applied to the variety float by the girls was greatly admired as a feature of the parade and in all lines undertaken by the students the enthusiasm of the local colleague has found successful expression.

CHIEF ROBERTS SAYS CITY NEEDS FIRE EQUIPMENT

Veteran Firefighter Tells What Is Absolutely Necessary For Protection.

"This is my first visit to Albuquerque and I never was so surprised in my life to see what a splendid city this is. I could scarcely believe my eyes when I learned that the main-tenance of the fire department is the chief fire protection you have," said Chief W. E. Roberts, of the "Fighting the Flames" company, this morning.

"What there is of the department is first class; there is nothing the matter with your firemen as far as I have been able to learn, but the best firemen in the world are powerless without the necessary apparatus with which to work. I understand how difficult it is for a city to raise money for the city department, but in the case of the fire department, no difficulty should stand in the way of getting what the city needs for protection against fire."

Mr. Roberts was a member of the Denver fire department for twenty-six years and a half and the last ten years of his service he was the chief of the department. He has seen the city of Denver grow from a city the size of Albuquerque to its present size; he has seen Denver learn the lesson which taught her to spare no expense to make her fire department the best it can be made.

An Expensive Lesson.
"It took Denver a long time to realize the vital necessity of keeping up her fire department," he learned the lesson as the result of a series of disastrous fires which threatened to wipe out the city, and which cost the lives of many citizens. Now Denver keeps up her fire department, even if she is compelled to cut down appropriations on the other city departments. Already this year Denver has spent $10,000 on fire fighting apparatus and firemen's equipment and she has made an appropriation of $200,000 for the department. Today there is no city in the world better protected from fires than Denver."

A Criminal Attack.
On an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It is generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at all dealers.

JUST TAKE A PEEP INTO OUR WINDOWS, "THE ARCH FRONT," 115 SOUTH SECOND STREET.

truck would require a crew of only four men and would cost no more than $2,500.

Other Equipment.

"The city also needs another combination wagon, only it need not be as heavy as the present one. The combination now used may be stationed at the branch fire department station in the Highlands and the new one retained at headquarters. There is another thing I would suggest and that is that the fire station cannot be too near the business center of a city."

Cost Saved in Insurance.
"What would be the additional cost of maintaining this additional apparatus?" Chief Roberts was asked.

"Well, he said, 'the aerial truck would require four men; the engine would require two and the combination wagon, four—ten additional men would have to be employed, and three additional teams would need to be purchased. The salaries of the extra firemen and the maintenance of the horses would be the principal additional expense, but the city as a whole would gain by this rather than lose, for insurance rates, I dare say, would be lowered to half the present rate. The slight increase in the tax rate would more than be offset in the reduction of fire insurance rates."

"The wonder is to me that the insurance companies do not compel this city to provide better fire protection for their buildings. In Denver they virtually forced the city to greatly increase its fire fighting facilities."

"There is not much use in my saying what the city needs or what it does not need; the people know as well as I do that Albuquerque is behind the times in the matter of a fire department. I understand that Chief Buttress is continually urging upon the city the necessity of improving the department at any sacrifice, and I sincerely hope that this city will do it before some great conflagration takes place and awakens them to the situation. I hope this city will not need to suffer a great calamity before it will learn the lesson. In my mind there is no sacrifice too great to be made if thereby the lives of the inhabitants are made safer."
